

Mix chart: Cam14 – Test 2

The chart below shows the value of one country's exports in various categories during 2015 and 2016. The table shows the percentage change in each category of exports in 2016 compared with 2015.

Summarise the information by selecting and reporting the main features, and make comparisons where relevant.

The bar chart compares the export earning value in five different factors while the table illustrates the proportion of changing by value between 2015 and 2016.

Overall, while the percentage of gem and jewellery decreased, the opposite was true for other categories accordingly table. In bar chart, petroleum products earning was the highest value and that of agricultural products least with unchanged data.

Regarding the bar chart, petroleum products value in 2015 was highest (60 billions), higher than double that of argicultural products while textitle was lowest and between engineered, gems. Until 2016, the gradually upward trend can be seen in three group, exception gem-jewellery (from 1 to 10 billions). Specially, export earning for argicultural products still remained around 30 to 31 billions dollar during the period.

In the table, changing speed of petroleum products earning rose by 3%, lower than 5.18% and 8.5% that of gem-jewellery and engineered goods, respectively. By contrast, the figure for textiles sharply went up by 15.24% while that of agricultural recorded an extremely small growth by under 1%.