

Ex25

The diagram depicts step by step in writing a great story, according to website www.ieltsdeal.com. Overall, this process goes through 7 stages, beginning with the thinking about the topic and finishing with the appearance of an excellent story.

The initial stage takes place when the author draws most opinion, the background, and the person will decide the essay. In the next step, the writer continues to look for the main character and focus on drawing information: name, timeline, the theme in content, story's range...., then during the development of story building, the author adheres to follow by his/her character, even other character and without bring themselves for our story.

In the subsequent stage, the person making this story is able to insert emotion into the story (like smell, touch, hearing vision), and it helps to reduce boredom in front of the reader. In addition, after completing moving emotion, the author utilizes figures of speech, consist of metaphor, allusion in the carefully method, to raise the special value. Following this, adverb and proper attention are also essential factors in the best story of the author. Finally, the writer will complete an excellent story after solving these problems in previous.