

Task 1: The following table shows the number of people from five European nations living in each other's countries in 2011.

Where they live	Number of people living in each other's countries					Total
	British	Germany	Italian	Polish	Spanish
British		297.000	119.000	550.000	71.000	1.037.000
Germany	104.000		556.000	426.000	112.000	1.198.000
Italian	29.000	42.000		106.000	19.000	196.000
Polish	760	4.400	670		170	6.000
Spanish	391.000	196.000	188.000	86.000		861.000
Total	524.760	539.000	863.670	1.168.000	202.170	3.298.000

The table compares how many residents living in foreign countries, such as Poland, Germany, Italia, Spain and England in 2011. Overall, Poland was the country where the most attracting foreigners while the number of citizens entrying in others nation was lowest. Also, England and Germany people living in abroad accounted for a substantial number.

Regarding two nations Poland and Italia, there were only 760 Polish entrying into England, lower than 4400 in Germany and only higher than 670 and seventh of Italia and Spain, respectively. In Italia, this figure for citizens residing in abroad mainly concerntrated in Poland with the highest figure (106k), followed by that of Germany, Spain(from 42k to 19k) and British in between.

In three other nations, Bristish in Poland was over a half millions, equal to fifthfold compared to those who in Italia and approximately three-fifth that of Germany. Additionally, Spanish was group foreigners being the largest number in England with under 400 thousand. Meanwhile, the same can be seen in the British group in Germany and German in Italia, respectively 556k and 300k.